TIE-UP OF CANAL HURTS 'FRISCO WATERFRONT

Because of the Panama Canal tie-up, San Francisco as well as Honolulu is feeling the effects not only in delayed arrival of goods, but in a big decrease in the number of steamers chartered and on the way to the coast from Atlantic ports via Magellan.

The San Francisco Chronicle is authority for the statement that the effect of the slide in Culebra (Gaillard) cut is evidenced by a recent announcement that only 62,456 tons have been chartered and on the way to San Francisco from the Atlantic range.

The government's Cristobal coaling plant at the canal is expected to be ready for operation early in 1916, and the Balboa plant by July, 1916. Berths alongside the coal docks for delivering or receiving coal will be guaranteed to vessels within twenty-four hours after arrival, and there will be no charge for pilotage or wharfage as regards the coaling pier and docks for vessels taking coal, but there will be the usual charges for vessels delivering such.

Upon completion, the permanent coaling plants will be turned over to the Panama Railroad Company for operation and maintenance, and that company will fix a maximum price per ton.

TWO STEAMERS FROM AUSTRALIA MONDAY

Radio advices received today by C. Brewer & Company, Ltd., local agents of the Oceanic line, from the steamer Sonoma, reported that the steamer will arrive here Monday morning at 8 o'clock, and will sail at 3 o'clock that afternoon for Sydney and way ports. Bad weather is holding back the Grace freight steamer Antec. A radio today to Castle & Cooke, Ltd., the local agents, said she would not arrive from Australia until Monday morning. She was expected to reach here tomorrow. The ship is coming here for fuel only.

Due Tuesday is the steamer Werribee, bound for Australia. She is coming for bunkers from the Inter-Island.

THINK MACKINAW HAS BEEN TOWED TO PORT

As no further word has been received from the American steamer Mackinaw, which sailed from here October 30, and sent out a S. O. S. call last week when 500 miles off Vancouver, reporting her engine disabled, the supposition here today is that she has been towed to some coast port.

Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., the steamer's Honolulu agents, have no more information about the steamer. The tug Goliath left from Astoria to look for the steamer, immediately after the ship's distress signals had been caught by wireless.

HARBOR NOTES

Mail for Australia will go Monday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, in the Oceanic steamer Sonoma.

After a 23-day voyage, the schooner A. F. Coats reached Grays Harbor yesterday. She left here October 27.

Capt. Moses Naopala took the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Loa out yesterday. Her regular commander, Capt. A. C. Stimson, is on a two weeks' vacation.

Making the run from Port Bragg in seventeen and a half days, the schooner Repeat, Capt. J. H. Mackenzie, arrived yesterday with 320,000 feet of lumber for Castle & Cooke.

Capt. W. K. Freeman of the Inter-Island "flagship" Mauna Kea, is recovering from an attack of illness, and will resume command of the steamer next week if he is well enough.

Next mail from San Francisco will arrive Monday morning in the Oceanic steamer Sonoma, which has 644 sacks. Next mail for the coast goes in the Lurline Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Following is the sugar list reported today by the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea, as awaiting shipment at Island ports: Olan, 3910; Waiakoa, 8000; Pepeekeo, 8679; Honouapo, 4400; Punaluu, 380.

Probably Tuesday, the Hind-Rolph schooner Muriet, Capt. J. S. Helling, will sail. She will finish unloading her lumber cargo Monday, and will receive cabled sailing orders from San Francisco before leaving.

The Shinyo Maru, due Friday morning from San Francisco, will take the next mail for the Orient late Friday afternoon. Next mail from the Orient is coming in the Chiyu Maru, due November 30, to sail for the coast November 30.

That six steamers will be operating on his line, under the American flag, by January 1, was stated by Philip Manson, a director of the Pacific and Eastern Steamship Company, recently incorporated to run a line of ships between the Pacific coast and Oriental ports.

That the schooner Annie Larsen had arrived at Hilo Thursday afternoon, was reported by the Mauna Kea today. The Larsen brought 400 drums of gasoline from the coast for Hilo, and general cargo for Mahukona. She was due to sail for the latter port yesterday.

To date 25 cabin passengers and 15 steerage are booked for the Lurline, sailing at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for San Francisco. The steamer's freight for the coast will include 200 tons of island sugar, 200 bunches of bananas, 40,000 cases of canned pines and 5000 bags of rice.

At 9 o'clock tomorrow morning the T. K. K. South American-Orient steamer Kiyo Maru will go outside from Pier 16 and anchor until her sailing time, Wednesday at noon, when she will leave for Japan ports. She has taken on 300 tons of bunker coal from the Inter-Island. The Kiyo burns both coal and oil fuel.

TRIES SUICIDE BUT TAKES TOO LITTLE ANT POISON

Because she underestimated the amount of ant poison necessary to cause death, Mary Luterio, 20 years old, employed as a domestic in the home of Policeman E. J. Gay on Gulick avenue, is still alive today. Yesterday the girl took poison with intent to commit suicide, but the dose was not large enough. She was brought to the police station and Dr. R. G. Ayer gave her an antidote. Today the girl went back to the Gay home.

Henry Prew, one of the founders of the Earl & Prew Express company, now a part of the Adams Express Co., died suddenly of heart failure at his home at Providence, R. I. He was in his 77th year.

VOWED HARI-KIRI IF WORK FAILED

Captain and Officers of Cruiser Asama Would Have Died Rather Than Lose Ship

Declaring that he and his officers had vowed to commit hari-kiri unless they succeeded in raising their ship, after it went on the rocks of Turtle Bay, Lower California, Capt. H. Yoshioka, commander of the Japanese cruiser Asama, this morning said the successful salvage of the cruiser was the biggest feat in the history of the Japanese navy.

Two divers died from exhaustion before the Asama was finally floated and pulled off the rocks. All the repair work had to be done under water. The men labored for 40 days and nights, with only snatches of sleep, before they accomplished their task.

At 8:10 this morning the Asama anchored off port, and her commander, through Japanese Consul H. Arita, obtained permission from Acting Collector of Customs Raymer Sharp to buy provisions. The cruiser will sail for Japan at daylight tomorrow, accompanied by the repair-ship Kwanto, Capt. G. Nanjo.

For the last 10 days the Asama has been at anchor in the lee of Maui, the three-mile limit, overhauling her engines and painting. She is scheduled to take part in the great naval parade to be held in Tokyo harbor December 5, if Capt. Yoshioka succeeds in arriving before that time. The Asama left Esquimaux October 23, and arrived off Maui November 7.

Since leaving Japan last year, the Asama has traveled 40,000 miles. She came here from Esquimaux, where she went to go into drydock for repairs. The dock was too small, so she had to go on to Japan.

Capt. Yoshioka said Admiral Thomas B. Howard, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, had offered him help when the Asama went on the rocks. He expressed his gratitude to the American admiral for his offer of assistance, which, however, was not needed.

The Asama has 46 officers and a crew of 529. The Kwanto has 27 officers, 151 in the crew, and 185 workmen on board. Capt. T. Haraga commanded the Asama when she called here May 8, 1914.
